Objective

Andrew Bradford, the famous American Publisher suggested that “DON’T RUN TOWARDS SUCCESS, BUT RUN TOWARDS EXCELLENCE, SUCCESS WILL AUTOMATICALLY COME TO YOU”. So, to achieve success, or to be successful in life one needs to aim for excellence, but a person going towards it needs some tools that will help to attain the said goals. With this backdrop, there would be a Platform Orator session by the expert on theme “Knowing Self and Others in The New Normal” followed by a workshop on “In Search of your North Star”. The workshop emphasizes on the fact that leadership, motivation, attitude, personality, decision making skills, conflict handling capabilities and perception play a key role in the excellence we aim for and thereby influences the success we achieve.
